

ANNOUNCEMENTS & TRAINING
JANUARY 26-31, 2025

1. We have Spanish Speakers visiting the Center Tuesday, January 28 at 6 pm. If you are available and habla espanol, come support these dear Saints. We would really appreciate your help

2. HOW TO ENLARGE AND CHANGE COLOR OF CURSOR:

- In lower Right Corner of Screen select <...> (also called a Flag)
- In Lower Right Corner Select the gear symbol that will take you to settings
- In Settings, on the Left select Accessibility
- In Accessibility Select the 5th Item down "Cursor & Touchpad"
- You can then select show large mouse cursor and color
- Once you Exit the session, it will return to the Default.

3. We appreciate the time you gave to help type pages of the Rustenburg Native African Tribe book. These are real people with real lives. Their names need to be added into FamilySearch Family Tree so that they can be taken to the temple. As part of her FamilySearch Record Linking internship, Mindy McLane will be managing a group project to add names from the Tribe books to the Family Tree. If you are interested in helping with this project, she will meet with you one one-on-one to show you how you can help. Please let her know if you'd like to become involved with the project! Her email is mindy.mclane@gmail.com

4. Reminder: Our Chrome Flex OS Computers are included in a pilot providing LibreOffice and RootsMagic10. FamilySearch wants to know:

- 1 Are the applications frustrating?
- 2 What problems are experienced?
- 3 Are these apps valuable?
- 4 What other apps would benefit our patrons?
- 5 Send responses to Matt.Carver@FamilySearch.org and copy joypeck@me.com

5. Matt Carver, who included us in the Pilot and also who works at FamilySearch Center Technology, will be in town this week and wants to visit the Center. Let us know if you want to know when he plans to meet with us. He has been willing to address our concerns with the Chrome Flex OS Computers.

6. Rootstech Thu, Mar 6, 2025 – Sat, Mar 8, 2025 - In Person or Online
